

AAESA Parent Advisory Committee (PAC) invites you to

Legal Planning for Young People with Disabilities

Guest Speakers

Daniel Blauw is a lawyer with Daniel L. Blauw PLC in Grand Rapids. He has been licensed to practice in Michigan since 1985. He helps families set up special needs trusts and arrange for services when they have a family member with life-long disabilities.

Sarah Kirkpatrick specializes in disability law with Daniel Blauw, PLC in Grand Rapids. She has been licensed to practice law in Michigan since 2006.

November 20, 2017

6:00 PM - 8:00 PM

at Allegan Area Educational Service Agency
310 Thomas Street, Allegan, MI

Please come to learn more about these important topics:

- Public Benefits
 - Supplemental Security Income
 - Social Security Disability Insurance
 - Medicaid
- Special Needs Trusts/Estate Planning
- Guardianships and Alternatives to Guardianships

There is NO COST to attend and childcare is provided.

If you have questions, please contact your local school district Special Education office or Stephanie Bush at AAESA (269-512-7700).

